

Job Title: Director of Music Ministry

Church: Grace Presbyterian Church ARP

Location: Columbia, SC

Employment Status: Part-time

Summary:

Grace Presbyterian Church (ARP) is looking for a part-time Director of Music Ministry to serve in our growing congregation located in northeast Columbia.

Grace is a young church (only seven years old) defined by the phrase “Gospel Accessibility.” It is our passion to see the people of Northeast Columbia come to faith in Jesus and to be discipled.

Job Description:

We have an established music worship ministry with a record of ample volunteerism and a plethora of talented folks who participate in weekly worship. We desire to bring on a Director of Music who will continue to assist the pastor and lead the music team in excellence as we design and execute weekly worship services that speak to the heart of our congregants and express the full message of the Gospel in an accessible and clear way. Our musical philosophy emphasizes congregational singing, with a repertoire built around traditional and re-tuned hymns, supported on a typical Sunday by piano, guitar, mandolin and hand drum. As a casual yet liturgical church, we have a folksy feel and a warm and hospitable environment.

Job Requirements:

- Committed Christian with a heart for reaching people in our city with the gospel of Christ
- Will become a member of Grace Presbyterian Church
- In agreement with the Westminster Standards
- Passion for corporate worship and congregational singing
- Competently skilled on piano or guitar for leading congregation
- Worship music leadership experience
- Song selection experience
- Ability to transpose music into various keys
- Ability to motivate, encourage and train volunteers
- Team player
