CH 551 Survey of Church History

Tuesday Afternoons, 1-4 PM, Beginning August 25

This course surveys the history of the Christian Church from its origins to the present time. Within the broad sweep of the four main periods of the Church [Early (50-600), Medieval (600-1500), Reformation (1500-1650), and Modern (1650-present)], students consider key persons, dates, developments, movements, and theological concepts.

CH 501 Early and Medieval Church History

Tuesday Evenings, 6-9 PM, Beginning August 25

This survey course traces the development of the Christian Church from the end of the Apostolic period to the division between East and West and of the Western Church up to the 15th-century Renaissance. Students examine the changing relation between Church and Empire, the development of Christian doctrine, the rise of the papacy, and the variety of patterns of Christian spirituality.

CH 760 Christianity in America

Saturdays August 29, September 19, October 17, November 7 & 21 (ThM Credit)

In this course students study American religious traditions from Colonial times to the present. The stress is on the historical development of the general religious motifs and particular denominational expressions of American religious development.

Dr. Johnson is a popular preacher and inspiring classroom teacher. He particularly enjoys taking students and other groups to study Reformation church history in Germany, Prague, and the British Isles. He serves as an elder in the Presbyterian Church in America. Education: B.A., Cedarville University, 1976; M.A., Covenant Theological Seminary, 1984; M.A., Florida Atlantic University, 1988; Ph.D., Georgia State University, 1995; Additional Studies, Oxford University, English Speaking Union Fellow; University of St. Andrews, Visiting Scholar; Professor at Biblical Theological Seminary in Kiev, Ukraine.

HB 501 Biblical Hebrew I

Tuesday Evenings, 6-9 PM, Beginning August 25 (Open to Erskine College Students)

A study of the fundamentals of classical Hebrew grammar, syntax, and vocabulary, this course prepares the student for Old Testament interpretation.

Dr. Makujina has served Christ's church in both undergraduate and graduate Christian institutions. Prior to moving to South Carolina, he lived in Minneapolis and taught at Central Baptist Seminary. Since 2007 he has served full and part time as a professor of Biblical Studies at Erskine College and Theological Seminary. He currently teaches fulltime at New Covenant School in Anderson. His academic interests include Hebrew and Greek grammar, the historical books of the Old Testament, and Christian apologetics. A number of his writings have been published in peer-reviewed academic journals and popular magazines.

CC 501 Professional Orientation

Wednesday Afternoons, 1-4 PM, Beginning August 19

Studies that provide an understanding of professional roles and functions, professional goals and objectives, professional organizations and associations, professional history and trends, ethical and legal standards, professional preparation standards, and professional credentialing.

CC 520 Human Growth and Development

Thursday Afternoons, 1-4 PM, Beginning August 20

A study of the descriptions and explanations of developmental changes in behavior as a result of the interaction between heredity and experience. The lifespan development of behaviors such as sensory, motor, intellectual, and emotional are examined in a variety of species with particular emphasis on humans. This course will equip practitioners to understand the nature and needs of individuals at all developmental levels, normal and abnormal human behavior, personality theory, and learning theory within cultural contexts.

CC 505 Social and Cultural Foundations of Psychology

Thursday Evenings, 6-9 PM, Beginning August 20

An examination of how individuals interact with other individuals and groups. Studies that provide an understanding of societal changes and trends, human roles, societal subgroups, social mores and interaction patterns, and differing lifestyles. This course covers such topics as affiliation, personal attraction, attitudes and attitude change, person perception, group behavior, conformity, and altruism.

Dr. Rogers-Larke is known for making abstract concepts concrete and allowing clients to find ways to apply them to their life. She is also fluent in sign language. If needed, services can also be offered at a distance once the treatment is determined. She specializes in child, adolescent and family therapy and has training in a variety of modalities. She tailors her approaches to best meet patient needs (CBT therapies, art and play therapies, behavioral approaches, social skills and trauma techniques). She has a variety of speciality areas, including ADHD, women's issues, trauma and children.
