

Student Diversity at Erskine Theological Seminary | Updated – June 2021

Erskine Theological Seminary “prepares men and women to fulfill the Great Commission of Jesus Christ through theological higher education that is ecclesial, missional, and confessional,” regardless of race and gender. We have students in about half of the 50 US states, in Europe, in Asia, and in parts of the world that require confidentiality for fear of persecution. Our student body is comprised of Christian servants from over thirty denominations that are bonded by our love of the Lord and our desire to reach the Lord. We are a Presbyterian and Reformed seminary that teaches. We do not indoctrinate. However, most leave our seminary changed: changed by the Gospel of grace that they experience in their classes.
