CH 502 Reformation and Modern Church History

Tuesday Evenings: 6:00pm - 9:00pm, Beginning January 18

This survey course covers the historical, spiritual, and institutional development of western Christianity from the Renaissance to the modern era. Students examine the Protestant reformers, the Counter Reformation, the Enlightenment, Pietism, and the development of Evangelicalism.

Dr. Johnson is a popular preacher and inspiring classroom teacher. He particularly enjoys taking students and other groups to study Reformation church history in Germany. He serves as an elder in the Presbyterian Church in America.

John Paul Marr, Adjunct Professor of Historical Theology

HB 502 Biblical Hebrew II

Monday Evenings: 6:00pm - 9:00pm, Beginning January 24 (Open to College Students)

This course continues the study of Hebrew grammar, syntax, and vocabulary and introduces the student to the Hebrew Bible and standard Hebrew lexica.

A recipient of Aberdeen University's Elphinstone PhD Scholarship, Dr. Marr's 2019 dissertation examined how second-generation Associate/Seceder theology was outworked in Scotland, Ireland, and the American Colonies. His six years serving as a Hebrew tutor and his doctoral work that addressed exclusive psalmody in the eighteenth century provide the basis for his student-centered and ministry-applicational approach.

GK 502 Biblical Greek II

Monday Evenings: 6:00pm - 9:00pm, Beginning January 24 (Open to College Students)

This course completes Greek Grammar I and introduces the student to the Greek New Testament and standard Greek lexica.

NT 735 Gospel of John

5 Saturdays, 1/22, 2/12, 3/5, 3/26, 4/23; 9:00am - 5:00pm

The course begins with class discussions of introductory problems related to the interpretation of the gospel of John. The next period of the course is devoted to a thorough reading of the gospel in an effort to understand its central message and purpose, its content, and its historical situation. The structure of the gospel is analyzed, followed by a general exposition of its content. The latter part of the course is devoted to more detailed interpretation of several individual passages. Throughout the course special attention is given to recent literature on the gospel of John.

Dr. Melton's broad experience in the church, gracious manner, and excellent teaching have made him a favorite of many students. As the Director of Erskine's Doctor of Ministry program, he has guided countless students through ministry projects that have sharpened their skills and strengthened the church. He is a minister in the Southern Baptist Convention. Education: B.A., Presbyterian College, 1971; M.Div., Erskine Theological Seminary, 1974; Ph.D., Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, 1978; Additional Studies, Hebrew Union College, Union Theological Seminary (N.Y.).
