NT 725 Gospel of Mark (Columbia and Online)

Monday Evenings: 6:00pm - 9:00pm; in-person and synchronous video conference option for distance students

The course is designed to introduce the student to the content, structure, and theology of the gospel according to Mark. Selected passages of the gospel are considered, especially to ascertain their relation to the theological intent of the author. The minister's continuing use of the gospel is kept in view.

PS 501 Presbyterian History and Polity (Columbia and Online)

4 Saturdays: 1/28, 2/25, 3/25, 4/29, 9:00am - 5:00pm; in-person and synchronous video conference for distance students

This course provides an introduction to the history and polity of selected Presbyterian denominations, including the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, and the Presbyterian Church in America. Students explore the governing structures, principles, and procedures for church discipline, and forms of worship of these Presbyterian denominations in order to prepare for a variety of ordained and non-ordained ministries within them.

ST 603 Systematic Theology III (Columbia and Online)

Thursday Evenings: 6:00pm - 9:00pm; in-person and synchronous video conference for distance students

This course concludes a systematic presentation of the Christian faith. Using biblical constructs, historical developments, and confessional statements, students explore the doctrine of the Holy Spirit and salvation, the doctrine of the church and sacraments, and the doctrine of last things.
