DN 983 The Problem of Pain

Online, 8 weeks. March 6 - May 4; pre-work required; asynchronous, with several voluntary synchronous video conference discussion sessions, Due West

This course addresses the intellectual questions which arise as to why and how there can be suffering if God is all-powerful and all-loving. Students explore these questions from biblical, theological, and pastoral perspectives, developing the implications for effective ministry to those who are suffering.

DR 901 Theological Foundations for Ministry

Monday - Friday, 9:00am - 5:00pm, January 9-13, 2023, Due West

This seminar is designed to help students clarify and articulate a theology of ministry in light of their own theological tradition, in conversation with a wide range of theological perspectives. Students read and discuss significant theological thinkers on the doctrine of the church and its ministry. The course culminates with a final Theology of Ministry paper, in which students describe their own theological perspective on ministry.

DR 902 Ministry in Context

Tuesday - Friday, 8:30am - 6:00pm, January 19-17, 2023, Due West

In this seminar, students examine the practice of ministry through the church in the world, in light of the theological foundations of ministry. Special emphasis is given to the careful study of one's ministry context, planning and implementing ministry, conducting research in ministry, and evaluating effectiveness in ministry.
