HT 560 Reformed Spirituality

4 Saturdays: 1/7, 2/4, 3/4, 4/1, 9:00am - 5:00pm; in-person and synchronous video conference for distance students, Due West

This course examines the biblical foundations, history, and theology of Reformed spirituality (also called the doctrine of the Christian life, or sanctification). Students read spiritual classics such as Calvin's Golden Booklet of the Christian Life, Richard Baxter's Reformed Pastor, the Heidelberg Catechism, and others. Students also consider contributions from other Christian traditions such as the holiness movement and the charismatic renewal, as well as from the history of Christian thinking about the contemplative life.
