BI 801 Seminar in Biblical Studies (Mark's Gospel)

(Columbia and Online)

Monday Evenings: 6:00pm - 9:00pm; in-person and synchronous video conference for distance students

The course is designed to introduce the student to the content, structure, and theology of the gospel according to Mark. Selected passages of the gospel are considered, especially to ascertain their relation to the theological intent of the author. The minister's continuing use of the gospel is kept in view.

ST 801 Seminar in Historical Studies (The Spirituality of the Reformers)

4 Saturdays: 1/7, 2/4, 3/4, 4/1, 9:00am - 5:00pm; in-person and synchronous video conference for distance students

This course examines the biblical foundations, history, and theology of Reformed spirituality (also called the doctrine of the Christian life, or sanctification). Students read spiritual classics such as Calvin's Golden Booklet of the Christian Life, Richard Baxter's Reformed Pastor, the Heidelberg Catechism, and others. Students also consider contributions from other Christian traditions such as the holiness movement and the charismatic renewal, as well as from the history of Christian thinking about the contemplative life.
