DN 929 (DW&Online) Perspectives on the Kingdom of God

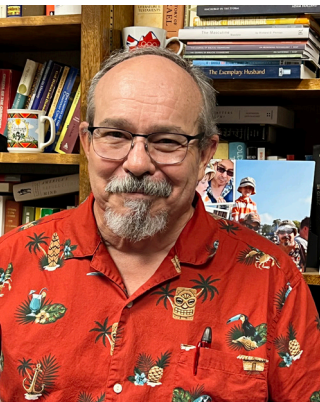

4 Mondays: 9:00am-5:00pm; 5/15, 6/12, 7/10, 7/31; in-person and live video conference for distance students

In this course students examine Jesus' teaching about the Kingdom interpreted in the light of the Old Testament and intertestamental Judaism, and in the context of 1st century Palestine. Students then analyze contemporary understandings of the Kingdom prevalent in the church today.

DR 902 (DW) Ministry in Context

Monday-Friday: 9:00am-5:00pm; Week long intensive: July 17-21

In this seminar, students examine the practice of ministry through the church in the world, in light of the theological foundations of ministry. Special emphasis is given to the careful study of one's ministry context, planning and implementing ministry, conducting research in ministry, and evaluating effectiveness in ministry.

DR 901 (DW) Theological Foundations for Ministry

Monday-Friday: 9:00am-5:00pm; Week long intensive: July 10-14

This seminar is designed to help students clarify and articulate a theology of ministry in light of their own theological tradition, in conversation with a wide range of theological perspectives. Students read and discuss significant theological thinkers on the doctrine of the church and its ministry. The course culminates with a final Theology of Ministry paper, in which students describe their own theological perspective on ministry.

DN 949 (CO&Online) Scripture Interpreting Scripture

4 Saturdays: 9:00am - 5:00pm; 5/20, 6/10, 7/29, 8/12; in-person and live video conference for distance students

This course focuses on how biblical authors appropriated the Old Testament in their writings, whether by direct quotation or more indirectly by allusion. A select Old Testament book will be used to demonstrate the biblical authors' interpretative methods. This course considers the relevance of how the biblical authors used Scripture for interpreting, applying, and preaching the Bible today.
