Church Overview:

Redeemer Church is a Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) congregation located in Evans, Georgia. Evans is a growing suburban city just outside of Augusta. Redeemer was particularized in 2003 and since then has grown to a membership of over 400. The youth program currently serves an average of 40 young people weekly. There is tremendous opportunity for growth as the congregation has approximately 75 middle and high school aged students with an additional 40 elementary aged students poised to enter the ministry in the coming years. We seek to accomplish this by ensuring God is worshiped through the proclamation of His Word in an environment where families are strengthened, and believers are equipped to impact those in their lives.
