ST 602 (COL & Online) Systematic Theology II

Mondays: 6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m: in-person and live video conference for distance students

This course continues a systematic presentation of the Christian faith. Using biblical constructs, historical developments, and confessional statements, students explore the doctrine of God, the doctrine of humanity, and the doctrine of Christ.

PS 701 (COL & Online) Presbyterian History & Polity

Saturdays: 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m: 1/11, 2/8, 3/8, 4/5; in-person and live video conference for distance students

This course provides an introduction to the history and polity of selected Presbyterian denominations, including the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, and the Presbyterian Church in America. Students explore the governing structures, principles, and procedures for Church discipline, and forms of worship of these Presbyterian denominations in order to prepare for a variety of ordained and non-ordained ministries within them.

WP 650 (COL & Online) Basic Preaching

Thursdays: 6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m: in-person and live video conference for distance students

In this introductory course for the preparation and delivery of sermons, students will draw on their work in exegesis, history, and systematic theology. Students will be instructed in the classical expository model that roots sermons in the biblical text, proclaims the good news of the gospel, and calls listeners to an obedient response to God's Word. Students will learn how preaching remains at the heart of pastoral ministry as a means of grace.
